

CRITTERAID

Come out and enjoy the fun, fresh air and prizes!
You don't even need to have your own dog! We can lend you one of ours! Or bring your horse, hamster or cat, in a carrier, of course. Just collect pledges and enjoy the beautiful day in a great parade!

Once again this year, Critteraid has partnered with their emergency animal rescue division - CDART, the Canadian Disaster Animal Response Team. By your participation, you are helping to raise money for all animals in our care every day of the year, including during disaster times.

Critteraid is a registered Charity run completely by volunteers for the benefit of all animals. Cats, dogs, horses, farm animals and wildlife have all benefited from this group of caring volunteers. From evacuating animals in disasters and registering them through Emergency Social Services to arranging the rescue of a cat on a telephone pole, Critteraid is there to help the animals.

We always need volunteers for various fundraising activities as well as for help at the sanctuary. Think about volunteering today! Call Critteraid Farm at 250.494.5057.

CRITTERAID MUTT STRUT

Please collect your pledges before the Mutt Strut and bring to the pre-registration at 9:00 a.m. on Action Festival Mutt Strut Day, Saturday, June 4th, 2011. If you are going to be unavailable for the Parade and still want to participate, then please speak to our Mutt Strut Coordinator, Lynn Detlor by calling 250.767.0013 or leave a message at Critteraid Farm at 250.494.5057 to make the necessary arrangements. You can also email info@critteraid.org. The Mutt Strut will follow the Parade Route and start and finish by the Summerland Arena. After you park your vehicle by the arena, join everybody at our staging area at Memorial Park. Cheques should be made out to Critteraid. Tax receipts will be issued as requested. T-shirts will be available for Strutters that raise $25.00 or more in pledges. Please let us know if you are participating so that we have enough "Doggy Bags" and T-shirts available to avoid disappointment.
